

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

USEFUL TABLE.—Through the kindness of James S. Clark, Esq., the gentlemanly ticket agent at Cresson, we have been furnished with a table showing the different stations on the line of the Pennsylvania Rail Road, both East and West; together with the distances, and the rates of fare charged at Cresson for passage to each station. As the table will be interesting, as matter of reference, to the traveling public, we give it a place in our columns.

MILITARY COMPANY.—We are requested to give notice that a meeting of citizens of Ebensburg and vicinity will be held at the Court House, on Saturday evening next, at 6 o'clock, for the purpose of raising and organizing a military company. We should be pleased if this movement should prove successful. Our town has been long enough without a military company. Johnstown boasts of several, and even Hemlock is ahead of us. This should not be. In times gone by, our town and vicinity turned out men who did some rough fighting for the Stars and Stripes, as the history of the Mexican War will amply testify. The bones of many of these brave men have long since mingled with a foreign soil. Eleven years have rolled past since a few of the gallant spirits returned to their homes. Some of them are yet amongst us; and although they may be tired of "the pomp and circumstance of war," and may not feel inclined to again enter the lists, yet the example set by them on that occasion is worthy of emulation. We are satisfied that the Cambrians who served in Mexico, whether they be dead or living, have brothers and sons and admirers who are not ready to let the military spirit die out entirely in this community. We have the material here to get up one of the best companies in the State. Then to work, young men, and raise that company!

QUITS.—A matched game of Quits was pitched at Wilmore, on Saturday last, by a somewhat celebrated pitcher of Ebensburg, and a young Welchman, of Johnstown. The match resulted in favor of the Welchman. The test was to be the best three in five. The score made was as follows:

	Ebensburg.	Johnstown.
First game, 21 yards,	14	21
Second " 25 yards,	21	18
Third " 21 yards,	10	21
Fourth " 25 yards,	14	21

The purse was said to be $50; besides which, numerous side bets changed hands. We trust the Ebensburg Cricket Club, when it enters for a match against the "All England Eleven," will make a better score.

THE FAIR.—The Agricultural fairs which have been held in this place, have not been so well attended from all parts of the county as could be desired. On one or two occasions, several of the districts were almost wholly unrepresented. We trust this will not be said of the coming fair. The Managers are sparing no pains or expense to render the most ample accommodations to both visitors and exhibitors, and every locality in the county should do its part in making the exhibition as full and as varied as possible. If our friends go into the matter with the proper spirit, we shall have a fair this fall which will be alike creditable to our county and our people.

SENTENCED.—On Saturday evening last, John Orner, Jr., George Nagle and Chas. Weaver, who were severally convicted of Larceny week before last, were sentenced by the Court to undergo an imprisonment for one year in the Western Penitentiary; and William Neales, convicted of receiving stolen goods, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment in our County Jail. For some cause which we have not learned, the sentence of Florida Brown, also convicted of Larceny, was deferred until the next argument court. Orner, Nagle and Weaver were taken by Sheriff Linton to the Penitentiary, on Monday last.

"SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT."—By reference to another column there will be found the advertisement of Duane Rulison, the well-known proprietor of the "Quaker City Publishing House," to which we invite the attention of those of our readers who are possessed with a desire to buy good and cheap Books. In connection with each Book, the purchaser is presented with a Gift, valued at from 50 cents to $500. Mr. Rulison has the reputation of always performing what is down in the bills—and, as a matter of course, the people have confidence in him.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—We are pained to learn that Mr. Jerome Dawson, of Allegheny township, has lost his right hand. On Saturday last, whilst engaged on a saw-mill, he was about removing some chips from a log that was being sawed, when the circular saw caught his hand, and instantly cut it off. It was thought that amputation above the wrist would be necessary to save his life. Mr. Dawson is a millwright by occupation, and is a most estimable man. We tender him our sympathy in this sad visitation.

THE GREAT SHOW.—As will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, we are to have a gigantic Circus and Managerie here on the 6th of next month.—If we may judge from the bills, this exhibition will surpass any thing of the kind we have witnessed in this "neck of woods" for a long time. Many persons object to attending the Circus, but when it contains a collection of the wonders of the animal kingdom, everybody has a good excuse to go, in the fact that they desire to "see the elephant."

MARRIED.—On Tuesday evening last, at the residence of the bride's father, Johnstown, by Rev. J. Williams, Mr. D. S. BOLSINGER and Miss LEVINIA C. RILEY, all of that place.

We cannot say as much for Sturge as our brother friend of the Echo, in consequence of our not receiving two gold dollars or a pound-cake. But, we wish there may never a cloud obscure their pathway, and may they be happy in each other's love, until death shall separate them.

MARRIED.—On the 18th inst., by Austin Thomson, Esq., WM. W. CLOSSIN to Mrs. SARAH YOUNG, both of Wilmore, Cambria county, Pa.

DIED.—On Sunday last, in Ebensburg, EBENEZER DAVIS, aged about 78 years. The deceased was a native of Wales, and had served many years in the British army. His trade here was that of a weaver, and we have often thought, as we passed his place of business, that he was one of the most perfect models of industry we have ever seen. Late and early his loom was in operation. He was retired in his habits, and unassuming in his manners. Peace to his ashes!

DIED.—On Tuesday, 20th inst., at her residence, near Beulah, Cambria township, Mrs. ELLEN JONES, aged about 60 years.

WANTED.—About 15 cords of good dry Wood will be taken, and paid for in cash, if application be made at this office.

BAILEY & CO.'S

Gigantic Circus and Managerie, COMBINED WITH THE EXHIBITION OF SANDS, NATHANS & CO.'S

THIS unique and mammoth establishment combines a greater number of attractions than were ever before offered to the public. The Performing Elephants, Antony and Cleopatra, are the same which, for months, created the greatest furore in London or Paris, while more recently their performances were the theme of universal admiration for months at the Broadway Theatre, New York. Their wonderful docility, and the perfection of their training, make them the most interesting specimens of the animal creation that the world has ever seen. All their faculties have been developed to the greatest extent, and they stand for SUI GENERIS, the most remarkable of their kind. They stand upon their head, play upon Musical instruments, ascend inclined Planes, and go through all the positions of the most accomplished acrobats.

In addition, Bailey & Co.'s Circus and Managerie comprises a collection of WILD ANIMALS, including Lions, Tigers, Bears, Leopards, Hyenas, Panthers, Ostriches, etc., besides a large and varied collection of the Monkey tribe, and a rare variety of the most beautiful Tropical Birds.

The troupe of Riders, Vaulters, Lady Equestriennes, etc., is the largest and most thoroughly artistic now traveling in the United States, and comprises the following distinguished names:

Mme. LOUISE BUBOIS, from the Cirque Parisien.

M. SANDS, the great Principal Rider.

E. W. PERRY, the best Four Horse Rider in the World.

S. BURT, the Wonderful Protean Equestrian.

LA BELLA ISABELLA, the Syph of the Circle.

J. BOOKER, the great Buffo Singer.

G. SLOMAN & BEDEAU, the World-renowned Contortionist.

SILE WADE, the Comic Negro Delineator.

THORNE & DONALDSON, the thoroughly accomplished Gymnasts; besides a crowd of Auxiliaries and Vaulters.

LA JUNE BURT, the greatest rider in the World.

J. CONRAD, the great scene rider.

G. SLOMAN, in his great Globe Act, upon horseback, will execute a variety of extraordinary Feats of Equilibrium.

THE CLOWNS, WARD & BOOKER, are the very embodiment of Fun and Jocular-ity. Their jokes are numerous, fresh, spicy, and piquant, full of hits at the times and follies of the day, yet entirely free from anything which the most delicately constituted mind could take the slightest exception to. Bailey & Co.'s Exhibition, therefore, comprises Elegant Horsemanship, a splendid Managerie, Slack Rope Performance, new Singing, Comic and Classic Dancing, Wonderful Posturing, Grand Spectacular Effects, Character Equestrianism, and a more novel and interesting programme than was ever before offered to the public. Each entertainment will conclude with a COMIC APERTURE, introducing all the comic talent in the company.

THE AMERICAN BRASS BAND, composed of picked musicians, accompanies the exhibition, and will precede the Grand Cavalcade on its entrance to each town, drawn by ELEPHANTS IN HARNESS, attached to the magnificent CHARIOT OF APOLLO.

The Pavilion is large and commodious, fitted up with due regard to the comfort and convenience of the visitors, and the Proprietors pledge themselves that nothing shall be found wanting to make this the most elegant, beautiful and satisfactory exhibition that ever visited this place.

The Grand Entree into the town will take place on THURSDAY, the 6th day of OCTOBER at 10 o'clock, A. M. Doors open at 1 and 6 o'clock. Performance commences at 1 and 6 o'clock.

ADMISSION 25 CENTS.
